ATLANTIC CITY, July 10.—Independence day has come and gone, but Atlantic City hardly noted the departure of the holiday thousands in the rush of the opening of the real vacation season and the caring for 25,000 delegates to the great temperance convention held this week by the National Anti-Saloon League. Aside from the importance of the gathering on the Million Dollar pier, which took on the proportions of mass meetings, the Boardwalk crowds were interested in the presence of scores of notables in all lines of endeavor, who came here to speak before the temperance delegates and express their opinions on the assurance that the United States soon will be a saloonless nation. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, Richard Pearson Hobson and others of national fame were greeted by big crowds as they left the pier or hotels, and even the most frivolous of summer folk have been impressed by the earnestness of the reformers.

William Pitt Kellogg, first Governor of Louisiana after the civil war, is among the notable visitors at the Marlborough-Blenheim. Joseph Elias, consul to Philadelphia from the State, is at the same hotel for a vacation. Mrs. William R. Nelson, widow of the late owner of the Kansas City Star, is at the Marlborough-Blenheim this week, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kirkwood, her daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smoot of Alexandria and Mr. and Mrs. George Lafferty of Washington were among the newcomers to the Marlborough-Blenheim this week.

Commander A. A. Althouse, U. S. N., was at the Otis hotel this week, with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patten of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nuder, C. A. Benton and Angelo Conti were among the arrivals from Washington at the Otis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith and Thomas A. Brynes were among the Washington folk who arrived at the Monticello during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. White of Washington are at the Boswell. Mrs. Ella M. Drem and Mrs. Emma Sanford Shelton have joined the Washington colony at the same hotel. Talbot C. Bell and B. J. Eslin arrived at the Boswell from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Combs of Washington are at the Seaside with Mrs. James Greenwell and Mrs. J. C. Jenkins of Baltimore. Victor J. Evans and Miss Eva Rice were the luncheon guests of Mrs. B. G. Weighly of Washington, at the Seaside.

Mrs. Helen A. Taylor and Mrs. Richard L. Boss are among the new arrivals from Washington at the Strand. Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson and R. E. Paine have joined the Washington colony at the same hotel.

A party of well known Washington folk who arrived at the Raleigh this week included George V. Voss, Mrs. N. Voss, Miss M. E. Sweet, Miss L. C. Williams and G. B. Eager. Mrs. Williams and G. B. Eager. Mrs. Williams and G. B. Eager. Mrs. Williams and G. B. Eager.

Mrs. Lillian Mae Davis and Miss Bertha S. Davis of Washington have joined the suite colony at the Seaside. Mrs. J. A. McLane and Miss Josephine McLane are at the St. Charles this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip F. Larned have joined the seashore contingent at the Chelsea. Mrs. Carson French is spending the month of July at the same hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Ewing of Washington have taken apartments at the Lorraine for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Drinker are among the recent arrivals from Washington, at the Willshire. Capt. J. D. Le May, U. S. A., is spending some time at the Fredonia.

Mrs. E. E. Brooks has arrived at the New England from Washington, to spend the remainder of the summer. Capt. William S. Samuels and Mrs. Samuels of Washington are at the Dennis. A. L. Varney joined Washington friends at the Dennis early in the week.

Mrs. A. Rhett Stuart and Miss Stuart arrived here this week to open their business as a dance was given. Mrs. C. B. Dawson Williams of Washington, D. C., is a recent arrival at Alleghenies and Master Donald Cameron.

Colonial Beach.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

COLONIAL BEACH, July 9.—Capacity crowds over the Fourth inaugurated the present summer season at Colonial Beach, Va. In the neighborhood of 5,000 pleasure-seekers made Saturday and Sunday trips here. Many of these will remain the entire season. An interesting program, followed by a display of fireworks was given at the beach front, together with a general jollification, marked the celebration of Independence day.

Many launch parties, representatives of both the Corinthian Boat Club and the Eastern Power Boat Club, made the trip here. Messrs. Le Roy Stone, Edgar Murphy, Robert Knott, Arthur S. Norman, Murphy, Alonzo Stone, in their launch, the Wynona, from the Eastern Power Boat Club, are making a week's stay at the beach. It is the intention to cruise along the Virginia coast before returning to Washington.

Extensive improvements have been made this year at Colonial Beach, and indications point to a banner season. The summer colony, because of unusually warm weather, arrived unusually early, and the beach even now presents a midseason aspect. Secretary Redfield made a short stop at the beach en route to Washington on the government coast survey steamer. The secretary was accompanied by Mrs. Redfield, his son, Lieut. Redfield, and several other officials.

Mr. Forsburg and family arrived here Saturday last on their yacht, the Loella. Mrs. Forsburg and daughters Olga and Dorothy have engaged a cottage for the summer on the front near Palm avenue.

Two Boy Scouts, Messrs. John M. Stockard and Frank W. Mason of troop 247, arrived at Colonial Beach last Friday after a hike of over 240 miles, extending over eight days. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Langley, of Washington, by way to Harpers Ferry, Bluemont, Fredericksburg, and from there to the beach. The boys are students at Technical and Eastern high schools, respectively.

Mrs. W. R. Howell and daughters Katharine and Ada, together with Miss Edith Barnes, are spending their vacation at South Beach.

The Messrs. Valentine and Percy Scannell and Mrs. E. K. Kupper are spending their vacation with the former's mother at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lamb and son Aubrey are here for the summer, and have as their guests the Misses Helen and Ruth Humphrey and Miss Mary Langley.

Miss Caroline Dashiell is spending the summer with friends at the beach. Mr. Arthur Miller and family are at the Alden cottage.

Messrs. E. F. Welch and R. B. Welch arrived on their yacht, the Dorothy K. K. Welch, from Washington, D. C., and are spending the summer at the cottage.

Mrs. R. H. Hooe is a guest at the New Waterloo. Mrs. R. H. Hooe is a guest at the New Waterloo. Mrs. R. H. Hooe is a guest at the New Waterloo.

Mrs. Mollie Wade is spending several weeks at the beach. Mrs. Mollie Wade is spending several weeks at the beach. Mrs. Mollie Wade is spending several weeks at the beach.

The following Washingtonians have registered at the Colonial Beach Hotel: Mrs. M. S. Schubert, Fred Oppenheim, E. E. Williamson and wife, H. R. Kohn and wife, W. Reynolds, E. M. Brown, E. Robbins, E. J. Logan, Dorothy Wiles, W. B. Jones, Miss Ruth Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Jarvis and children and the Misses Ruth, Franklin and Helen Morningstar.

The Walcott House—M. J. Redman, William H. Hutchison, Edw. Vollans and family, M. C. Benton and wife, J. Leins and family, Roy E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Black and wife, S. Chacona, Wilson L. Baker and wife, Howard Lamas, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Colston, Mrs. M. J. Killeen, William C. Hammett, W. P. Towne, Mann A. Keene, Paul B. Twinnage and wife, A. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Graham and son, Mrs. C. L. Thoning and Misses H. Torney, W. Reason, L. Hassett and F. Carroll.

Mrs. H. H. Hooe is a guest at the New Waterloo. Mrs. H. H. Hooe is a guest at the New Waterloo. Mrs. H. H. Hooe is a guest at the New Waterloo.

The Linwood—George R. Sullivan, William A. Walsh, H. W. Cauffman and wife, Mrs. E. J. Soper, H. M. Grady, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sullivan, H. Hazel, A. R. Emory, E. M. Brown, E. Robbins, E. J. Logan, Dorothy Wiles, W. B. Jones, Miss Ruth Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Jarvis and children and the Misses Ruth, Franklin and Helen Morningstar.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sted are spending the Fourth of July at this resort, together with a large number of visitors. Since last season many improvements are noted here—a cozy hotel of twenty-two sleeping rooms, with a fine ballroom, 25x50, for dancing, lounging and card parties, a fine eight-room cottage, etc. A crab feast was given by Miss Frank Brown last week.

Among recent Washington guests were Mr. Horace F. Clark and wife, Horace Clark, Jr.; Mr. J. S. G. Gallagher and wife, Miss Gallagher, Mr. R. W. Cramp-ton, wife and children, Mrs. M. C. Hazard and daughter, Mrs. G. W. Holland, Mr. Perry Gaddis and wife, Charles H. Gaddis, Misses Hilda Fisher, Betty Knight, Blanche Klinger, Mr. A. G. Borden and wife, Misses Janet Borden, Melie Gran-man, Mary Miller, Edith Ireland, Doris Rosendale, Amelle Rosendale, Mr. A. E. Foster, J. A. Huff, Mr. J. H. Hotz and wife, W. A. Jule, J. H. Skyland.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

SKYLAND, Va., July 10.—Never has Skyland enjoyed a happier or more glorious Fourth than the one just passed. Although the place was en fête throughout Sunday, the official celebration of the holiday was held Monday, when the program began in the early morning with a bombardment of fireworks on the part of the small boys in camp, which was continued more or less throughout the day. But with 500 acres of beautiful park on one of the highest peaks of the Blue Ridge at the unlimited disposal of the guests of the camp it was possible for both advocates of noise and of the safe and sane theory to find equal enjoyment in the celebration. For the latter, however, the most important event of the day was announced when the bugle sounded over the camp the call for dinner. The walls and ceiling of the grand rustic dining hall were almost concealed beneath their lavish draperies of flags and blue and white bunting. Amid the floral centerpieces and the national colors, upon each table were placed smaller flags, and in addition to the menu cards and musical programs at each cover were numbers of favors in patriotic designs. An address was made by Mr. E. H. Droop of Washington, for whom the date also meant his twenty-first anniversary as a camper on Skyland. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Droop, Anita Kite, Mr. and Mrs. J.
